malaria.

UNITED AGAINST MALARIA

Thanks to a diverse team of partners, United Against Malaria is harnessing momentum to reduce malaria deaths worldwide. UAM would like to thank all of its partners, including its private sector partners on the back of this page, for their extraordinary contributions toward saving and improving lives on the African continent.

Since its inception in 2009, the United Against Malaria partnership has brought the private sector to the frontlines of malaria control. Today, more than 100 companies have supported at least one of the four pillars of the Malaria Safe* initiative—education, protection, visibility and advocacy. UAM wishes to thank these partners for their incredible efforts to fight malaria across Africa.
